Candidates invited for interview will be assessed during the selection process, in order to demonstrate they have the necessary skills and that they are suitable to work with children.

During the interview process, candidates will be asked questions that relate to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, as well as their protection.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo the standard checks; a satisfactory enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check; a check that the candidate is not subject to a prohibition order issued by the Secretary of State and/or listed on any European Economic Area or other prohibition register.

TO BE SIGNED BY ALL APPLICANTS

I confirm that to the best of my knowledge, the information given on this form is true and correct, and can be treated as part of my subsequent contract of employment.

Providing false information is an offence and could result in

- The application being rejected
- Summary dismissal if the applicant has been selected
- Possible referral to the Police if appropriate

I am in possession of the certificates that I claim to hold, and I understand that wilful falsification may result in dismissal if I am appointed.

I am aware that the post for which I am applying is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore that all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent' must be declared. I have not been disqualified from working with children, am not on the Children's Barred List, I am not prohibited from teaching and management.

I understand, too, that any offer of employment may be subject to satisfactory medical and legal clearance. Also, that an online check will be made to ascertain my digital footprint

We have a written policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders, which is made available to all applications at the outset of the recruitment process, which is in line with the DBS Code of Practice (available on request). Criminal records will not necessarily bar a candidate from employment.

EITHER (please delete as appropriate):

I have no convictions, cautions or bind-overs or any of the above

OR

I have attached details of any convictions, cautions or bind-overs in a sealed envelope marked "Confidential".

REFEREES

Please provide two referees as the school will need to contact previous employers as part of the verification process ie pre-appointment checks, if you are short-listed for interview. One referee should be your current or most recent employer. Where you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, one referee must be from the employer by whom you were most recently employed in work with children. Please note, references will not be accepted from relatives or from referees writing solely in the capacity of friends. The school will contact previous employers to obtain written references, which will be verified by a follow-up telephone call.
